The cartoon depicts four characters in a classroom setting. On the left, a character with a lightbulb above his head asks a question. In the center, a character with a beard and glasses explains the concepts. On the right, another character expresses gratitude. The background is a simple white space with a grey border.

Do I use their, there, or they're? Also, what is the difference between since and because?

My dear friend, you are confused about Homonyms and Homophones. You can read more on Enago Academy.
