

International Conference Presentation Guide: The ultimate do's and don'ts

Author

Riya Thomas

Post Url

<https://www.enago.com/academy/international-conference-presentation-guide-the-ultimate-dos-and-donts/>

Looking to be a shining star and take your research to the next level? International conferences are a fantastic opportunity to showcase your latest findings, learn from the best in the business, and network with like-minded professionals across the globe.

Whether you are presenting or just attending, with our ultimate do's and don'ts guide, you'll be able to navigate the conference like a pro, leaving a lasting impression every attendee. So get ready to pack your bags, grab your business cards, and to make your mark on the world of academic conferences!

Access the infographic anytime you want or share it with your peers! Download Now for Free!

enago academy

International Conference Presentation Guide: The ultimate do's and don'ts

DO'S

- 1. Arrive on time and give a professional introduction.
- 2. Use a professional graphic throughout your slide.
- 3. Dress professionally.
- 4. Speak clearly and audibly.
- 5. Engage the audience.
- 6. Prepare for Q&A.
- 7. Thank the organizers.

DON'TS

- 1. Avoid long monologues or overly technical slides.
- 2. Avoid overloading slides with text.
- 3. Avoid jargon.
- 4. Avoid being off-topic.
- 5. Avoid starting with a long apology.
- 6. Avoid starting with a long story.
- 7. Avoid overloading slides.
- 8. Avoid being late.
- 9. Avoid using a laptop.
- 10. Avoid using a mobile phone.

Thanking the organizers and their team

- 1. Personalized thank you notes: Write a personalized thank you note to each organizer and team member.
- 2. Engage in conversations: Engage in conversations with organizers and team members during the conference.
- 3. Attend seminars and workshops: Attend seminars and workshops organized by organizers and team members.
- 4. Use social media: Use social media to share your experience and connect with other attendees.
- 5. Follow up: Follow up with organizers and team members after the conference.

Cite this article

Riya Thomas, International Conference Presentation Guide: The ultimate do's and don'ts. Enago Academy. 2023/03/28. <https://www.enago.com/academy/international-conference-presentation-guide-the-ultimate-dos-and-donts/>